

HYC CUP 2019

Update # 3

August 23, 2019

With six of nine races complete, Danger Paws has turned the 2019 HYC CUP Championship into a race for second place. Neil and Lis have done so by sailing flawlessly and totally dominating the scene by winning all six HYC CUP events.

However, the race for second is a different story. There, perennial championship contender, Callinectes, is locked in a tough struggle with newcomer Seeker, sailed by Alan and Sandy Johnson. Rounding out the top five spots are fourth place, Bluejacket (Andy Armstrong) and fifth place Diablo (Greg & Carie Cutter).

With three events remaining, here are the Top 11 boats in the Championship:

First	25 points	Danger Paws	Neil Ford/Lis Biondi
Second	14 points	Callinectes	Ben Cuker
"	"	Seeker	Alan & Sandy Johnson
Fourth	12 points	Bluejacket	Andy Armstrong
Fifth	11 points	Diablo	Greg & Carie Cutter
Sixth	8 points	Sitella	Ian Hill
Seventh	7 points	Cool Change	Rusty Burshell
"	"	Feather	Phil Briggs
"	"	Myrage	Christian Schaumloffel
"	"	Wham Bam	Dave Taylor
"	"	Nanuq	Glenn Doncaster

The final three events in the HYC CUP Championship are:

- HYC Annual (Middle Ground Light) Sun, Sept 8
- Frostbite Series Sun, Oct 27, Nov 3, 10, 17, 24
- Gaboon Race Sun, Dec 1
